

February 17, 2012

Powell records stories in error.

Child welfare records released today in Powell case do NOT include pornographic cartoons.

Contrary to some news reports, child welfare records released today regarding the Department's history with Joshua Powell and his family do NOT include the pornographic images of cartoon characters that were found on Powell's computer. Those images are in the possession of law enforcement, NOT the Department of Social and Health Services.