

Foster Parent Intensive Resource Home (IRH) Pilot

- Legislation (RCW 74.13.800) mandates Children's Administration (CA) to pilot IRH in two locations
- Yakima and Vancouver are the sites selected
- IRH is a contracted service, requirements to become an IRH provider for the pilot are;
 1. Be a licensed foster parent for 3 or more years
 2. Live in Clark or Yakima County
 3. Willing to care for youth who meet level 3, 4 or exceptional needs
 4. Willing to participate in the foster parent skills group and ongoing consultation
 5. Enter into a DSHS contract
- Special stipend payment per month
- More detailed information on the model (Keeping foster parents trained and supported) and IRH pilot implementation can be accessed at; www.dshs.wa.gov/ca/fosterparents
- If you have questions regarding IRH you may contact Doug Allison 360 902-7983 or E-mail adou300@dshs.wa.gov

