STREET ADDRESS	CITY	STATE ZIP CODE
Information About the Noncustodial Parent
NAME (FIRST, MIDDLE, LAST)
Payments
I understand that DCS can send support payments to me by Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) by depositing the payments directly into my checking or savings account. I authorized direct deposit by completing the following bank account information. (Attach a voided check.)
If I do not authorize direct deposit, DCS will automatically mail me a stored-value Visa debit card called the DCS ReliaCard. If DCS enrolls me in the DCS ReliaCard program, DCS will deposit my support payments to the card rather than to my bank account. In most cases, support payments are available in my bank account or on my DCS ReliaCard within three business days after DCS applies them to my case. The DCS ReliaCard can be used at millions of locations where VISA is accepted or at ATM machines. I can get more information about electronic payments, or find out about my other options for receiving payments, by calling 800-468-7422 or on-line at www.dshs.wa.gov/dcs

_____ I voluntarily authorize the Division of Child Support (DCS) to retain up to 10 percent of my current support and all of my past-due support payments to repay support I receive from any of the following circumstances. DCS will withhold these amounts until I pay the debt in full if I:

Initials

1. Receive an overpayment.
2. Receive a payment in error.
3. Receive a payment as a result of a non-sufficient funds check.
4. Keep a support payment I am not entitled to receive.

I want DCS to provide child support enforcement services to me and my child(ren). I want DCS to accept and endorse all child support payments (checks, money orders, electronic funds transfers, etc.) collected for me.

If I now receive child support payments through a state or tribal court or state or tribal child support enforcement agency, I want the court or agency to send all payments to DCS.

I read and understand the Nonassistance Support Enforcement Information form that I received with this application.

I understand that:

1. DCS charges me a $25.00 annual fee if I have never received Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF), Tribal TANF, or Assistance to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) for children in my household. DCS retains this fee (between October 1st and September 30th) from child support collected after DCS has disbursed $500.00 in child support payments to me on a case in a federal fiscal year. If I have more than one case, I may be charged a fee on each case where $500.00 is disbursed to me. If I have received TANF, Tribal TANF, or AFDC from another state I must provide proof, such as a sworn statement from the public assistance agency or a certified copy of my assistance records, to DCS. DCS may charge the fee until I provide that proof.
2. If DCS refers my case to another state for enforcement, the other state may charge a fee for a particular service. The other state may collect its fees by retaining a part of the child support collection.
3. DCS will need to release my name and my child(ren)'s name(s) to the noncustodial parent.
4. I must provide my social security number to DCS. DCS will use the number for child support enforcement purposes as defined in the Title IV-D of the Social Security Act.
5. DCS cannot collect child support debts barred by the statute of limitations.
6. DCS cannot require an Indian tribe, a tribally-owned business, or an Indian-owned business located on a reservation to withhold child support from income paid to a noncustodial parent. If a tribe and DCS have an agreement to do so, DCS will ask the tribe to enforce my child support order.
7. DCS will enter my child support order into the Washington State Support Registry (WSSR).
8. If I have a court order that requires the noncustodial parent to pay child support through the WSSR, my case will remain in the WSSR until a court releases my order.
9. DCS will distribute child support collections on my case as required by federal and state law. DCS will:
 - a. Apply current child support to the month in which it is received.
 - b. Send me the current child support. (If the noncustodial parent has more than one child support order and a collection does not cover all current support orders, DCS divides the collection proportionally between the cases.)
 - c. Retain an annual $25.00 fee payment (between October 1st and September 30th), if I have never received AFDC, TANF, or Tribal TANF funds as a custodian of minor children, after $500.00 in child support is disbursed to me on the case in a year.
 - d. Apply payments that exceed one month's current child support to past-due child support (if any).
 - e. If I received TANF or AFDC in the past, DCS will distribute past-due child support:
 - (1) First, to any past-due support owed to me that was never assigned to the state.
 - (2) Second, to any past-due support that was temporarily assigned to the state by an assignment made on or after October 1, 1997, and before October 1, 2008, and which are not a part of the permanently assigned past-due support described in (4) below.
 - (3) Third, to any past-due support owed to me for my child(ren)'s medical support.
 - (4) Fourth, to any past-due support that was permanently assigned to the state by a public assistance assignment made before October 1, 1997, or assigned after that date because a public assistance grant was paid to me in that month.

FG VER: (1.8)

- (5) Fifth, to any medical support assigned to the state.
- (6) Payments received from the Internal Revenue Service, and applied to past-due support, are distributed in the following order:
 - (a) First, to any support owed that was never assigned to the state.
 - (b) Second, to permanently assigned past-due financial support.
 - (c) Third, to temporarily assigned past-due financial support.
 - (d) Fourth, to permanently assigned past-due medical support.
10. I must return money DCS pays me if:
 - a. DCS sends me money in error.
 - b. DCS sends me more money than the noncustodial parent paid to DCS.
11. Chapter 74.20A RCW allows DCS to recover overpayments from me. This applies even after I stop receiving support payments through DCS. DCS may do so by:
 - a. Keeping 10 percent of any current support payments.
 - b. Keeping all past-due support payments.
 - c. Sending my employer or other person or organization that holds assets for me an Income Withholding for Support. This order/notice requires my employer or other person or organization to withhold the overpayment from my earnings, income, and assets.
 - d. Filing liens against my real and personal property.
 - e. Using any DCS collection remedy available under Chapters 26.09, 26.18, 26.23, and 74.20 RCW.
12. RCW 26.23.110 allows DCS to collect unreimbursed medical expenses (including copayments deductibles, and premiums as defined in WAC 388-14A-1020) incurred on behalf of the child(ren) from me under certain circumstances. DCS may do so by:
 - a. Reducing the debt owed to me.
 - b. Reducing any current support owed to me by no more than 50 percent each month for a year or less.
 - c. Opening a collection case against me and using any DCS collection remedy except license suspension.
13. If my support order requires me to provide health insurance coverage, DCS may enforce that requirement if the noncustodial parent requests it. Enforcement may include establishing a cash medical obligation for monthly premiums, not to exceed 25 percent of my basic child support obligation as shown in the worksheets for my support order.
14. DCS does not represent me or the other party to my child support order. To protect my interests, I should take part in all hearings or court appearances about my child support order. If I do not attend and participate in a hearing, an Administrative Law Judge may grant any requests made by DCS or the other party to my child support order without further notice to me.
15. DCS can deposit my support payments directly into my bank account by Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT). If I do not authorize direct deposit, DCS will automatically mail me a stored-value Visa debit card, called the DCS ReliaCard. If DCS enrolls me in the DCS ReliaCard program, DCS deposits my support payments to the card rather than to my bank account. In most cases, support payments are available to my bank account or on my DCS ReliaCard within three business days after DCS applies them to the case. The DCS ReliaCard can be used at millions of locations where VISA is accepted or at ATM machines. For more information about electronic payments or other options for receiving payments I can call 800-468-7422 or go on-line at www.dshs.wa.gov/dcs
16. DCS may serve written notices on me by first class mail. DCS may serve these notices to my last-known address.

I agree to:

1. Send DCS all support payments I get from anyone other than DCS. I must send DCS the payments within eight days.
2. Tell DCS immediately if my child(ren) receive(s) dependent benefits (on behalf of the noncustodial parent) from the Social Security Administration or the Department of Labor and Industries. Receipt of dependent benefits may affect the amount of child support the noncustodial parent must pay.
3. Tell DCS if I ask another person or agency to collect child support for me.
4. Tell DCS if my address or my child(ren)'s address changes.
5. Send DCS copies of all child support orders that change the support requirements or custody of the child(ren) named in my case.
