Base Wage With Pandemic Add On FY2023

IF there is no wage increase in Bien2023-25

Starting July 2022, pandemic add-on rate will be reduced 20% from June 2022 amount, every 2 quarters.

Shoring up pandemic add-on wage in Bien2023-25

Cost of adding $1.37/hr wage

Starting July 2022, pandemic add-on rate will be reduced 20% from June 2022 amount, every 2 quarters. At the end of June 2023, pandemic add-on rate would be $1.37/hr. This is what needs to happen to shore up base wage rate to the end of June 2023 state:

- CDE rate would need to be increased to $30.11/hr to afford adding $1.37/hr wage in Bien2023-25
- It would cost a total of $275.3M in Bien2023-25 ($121.1M GF-S), including Agency Parity
- The legislature assumed funding to continue the reduced temporary rate add-ons for in-home providers in fiscal year 2024, so the total incremental cost for adding $1.37/hr will be $207.6M ($91.3M GF-S) in the 2023-25 biennium

To the Members of the Rate Setting Board,

The hazard pay negotiated by SEIU 775 has helped many caregivers survive the pandemic and continue working. However, with only minor pay increases since May 2020 and a historic level of inflation, many of the gains from the temporary wage increases have been wiped away.

Wages for home care workers are insufficient to make ends meet, support caregivers' families, and recruit and retain caregivers to meet client demand. Many caregivers still live in poverty.

Caregivers also continue to have inadequate benefits, including a lack of affordable health care for their dependent children, insufficient paid time off, and a retirement benefit that isn't enough to ensure retirement security.

Attached is a petition from 6,773 home care workers and community members asking for your support to provide sufficient funding in the Labor Rate for home care workers to receive wages of $23-25/hour, continued affordable health care, the addition of affordable health care for caregivers' dependent children, meaningful increases to retirement benefits, and additional paid time off and paid holidays.

We need to increase the Labor Rate so we can increase wages to a living wage and improve benefits to recruit and retain caregivers. We call on you to do all you can to lift caregivers out of poverty and build the workforce we need to provide these services to the seniors and people with disabilities who are served by our members.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Sterling Harders', with a large loop at the end.

Sterling Harders

SEIU 775 President

SEIU 775
215 Columbia Street | Seattle, WA 98104

Member Resource Center 1.866.371.3200 | www.seiu775.org

Our mission is to unite the strength of all working people and our families, to improve our lives and lead the way to a more just and humane world.

Petition

The newly established Consumer Directed Employer Rate Setting Board will be meeting this Spring to establish the Labor Rate for the Consumer Directed Employer for July 1, 2023, through June 30, 2025.

This Labor Rate will determine the funding available for wages and benefits for individual provider home care workers. Once this rate is set the company and SEIU 775 will negotiate a collective bargaining agreement on specific wages and benefits based on the funding available through the Labor Rate.

We are facing a significant and growing workforce crisis in home care. The hazard pay negotiated by SEIU 775 helped many caregivers survive the pandemic and continue working, but with only minor pay increases since May 2020, growing inflation has substantially eaten into those gains. Caregivers also continue to have inadequate benefits, including a lack of affordable health care for their dependent children, insufficient paid time off, and a retirement benefit that isn't enough to ensure retirement security. We need to increase the Labor Rate so we can increase wages to a living wage and improve benefits so we can recruit and retain caregivers to serve the growing population of seniors and people with disabilities needing care.

We call on the Consumer Directed Employer Rate Setting Board to provide sufficient funding in the Labor Rate for home care workers to receive:

- Wages of $23-25/hour
- Continued affordable health care, and the addition of affordable health care for caregivers' dependent children
- Meaningful increases to our retirement benefits
- More paid time off and paid holidays

Dear Chair Reed and members of the CDE Rate Setting Board:

We are writing today regarding the agency administrative rate on behalf of the Washington Home Care Coalition.

The Coalition is made up of large and small Medicaid home care agencies from across the state. Collectively we employ more than 15,000 caregivers and provide millions of hours of Medicaid home care services each year.

We want to stress the importance of ensuring a balanced system here in Washington. Home care clients are fortunate that we have a system that allows them options to find the best fit in terms of care for themselves or a loved one.

Whether that's the CDE or an Agency, both sides of that system need to be supported.

Per the conversations and presentations at today's Board meeting, the need to increase the agency administrative rate is plainly evident. Agencies have been in the desert a long time on this issue, with only small sips of water here and there. In fact, the agency administrative rate has only increased by $0.16, a cumulative 2.97%, or less than three-tenths of a percent per year over the last 13 fiscal years. As a result, we have seen home care agencies close offices, or simply stop operations all together, potentially forcing clients into far more costly care environments. This trend cannot continue, especially when the community need for home care services is only growing.

This Board has the ability and the statutory option to make recommendations and we respectfully request that it does so and supports increasing the agency administrative rate by 10% and at regular intervals going forward. With increasing federal and state requirements as well as an ongoing workforce crisis, this increase is essential.

Our caregivers do amazing work, they and our agencies deserve adequate funding to support administrative staff and functions which facilitate this important work and ensure quality care for the clients we serve.

Thank you for your hard work and for your consideration and support of this request.

TO: Consumer-Directed Employer Rate Setting Board
FROM: SEIU 775
DATE: Monday, June 13, 2021
SUBJECT: SEIU 775 Rate scenarios and proposals

As the Rate Setting Board (RSB) continues to discuss what a sound and rational labor rate looks like for fiscal years FY 24 and FY 25 looks like, and in hopes of advancing this conversation, this memo lays out SEIU 775's view on:

- a) What we believe should be the floor for consideration, and estimates for its' cost;
- b) SEIU 775's proposal and costing estimate.
- c) Recent and historical examples of long-term care and home care rate increases

Note on methodology: We anticipate that there will be some variance with the state, though we expect the numbers to be relatively close. Our cost increase figures include IP and AP, and they also include B&O taxes, which we understand would ultimately be shifted from the Labor Rate to the Admin Rate. The cost increase figures are "net" of the $68 Million existing FY 24 appropriation.

A. The "floor" rate for consideration

During the last meetings of the RSB, there was broad conceptual consensus among RBS' members that under no conditions should home care workers see a pay cut or reduction in benefits. SEIU 775 believes there are two key components to prevent wage and benefit reductions:

- a) Maintaining pay rates in effect July 1, 2022
- b) Maintaining affordable health care

Notably, it is unclear whether there are some additional cost drivers that are out of our control that would also need to be taken into consideration – such as any projected increases in L&I or unemployment tax rates, and/or the recently announced increase in the IRS mileage rate or any further increases.

During the June 9th Rate Setting Board (RSB) meeting, Rina Wikandari (DSHS) outlined the rate increase needed to maintain caregivers' pay rates as of July 1, 2022. Additionally, The SEIU 775 Health Benefits Trust, during the RSB meeting on May 10, provided modelling on the cost of maintaining existing health benefits.¹

Based on the information provided by DSHS and the Health Benefits Trust, TABLE 1 illustrates the rate increases necessary for the Labor Rate to maintain pay rates in effect July 1, 2022; and to maintain an affordable health care benefit for caregivers.²

² Please note that it is not clear whether the $1.58 includes the B&O tax increase to the admin rate, and the $0.23 increase in health care does not include any B&O tax increase, which would be minor.

	FY 24	FY 25	Biennial
Baseline Rate	$28.53	$28.53
Rate increase to prevent wage cut	$1.58	$1.58
Maintain health care	$ -	$0.23
Total Labor Rate	$30.11	$30.34
Health care rate (included in total rate)	$4.00	$4.23	$0.23
Percent increase in overall Labor Rate	5.54%	0.76%	6.30%
Net total cost increase after FY 24 existing appropriation	$ 67,435,000.00	$ 160,140,000	$ 227,575,000.00
Net GF-S cost increase after FY 24 existing appropriation	$ 29,672,000.00	$ 70,462,000	$ 100,134,000.00

Simply avoiding a pay cut or increase in health care costs is insufficient to meet the needs of home care workers or home care clients. As we noted early in the process, simply continuing existing wages through the next biennium means that home care workers will have gone five years – from May 2020 through June 2025 - with very little increase in wages. This is particularly unacceptable given the historic level of inflation we are now seeing.

TABLE 2 below illustrates this scenario. Notably, just avoiding a pay cut without significant wage increases would translate into just a 2.7% wage increase for caregivers over the span of 5 years, but in real terms, adjusting for inflation, caregivers would be facing a 15.6% decrease in their purchasing power.

B. SEIU 775's proposal

During the course of the Rate Setting Board process, SEIU 775 has proposed:

- A rate sufficient to achieve a starting wage of $23.00 per hour, which would result in an average wage of approximately $24.00 per hour;
- A health benefit rate to maintain existing coverage and add much-needed dependent coverage;
- Other modest increases in benefits, including a 15 cent per year increase in retirement benefits and increases in PTO, paid holidays, and other smaller improvements.

⁴ "Washington State Economic and Revenue Forecast," Washington State Economic and Revenue Forecast Council, Volume XLIV, No. 1, February 2022.

We estimate that our proposals require the following labor rate and health care rate (the labor rate is inclusive of the health care rate).

TABLE 3. SEIU 775 PROPOSAL – COSTING

	FY 24	FY 25	Total
Labor Rate	$31.33	$34.61	-
Health care Rate	$4.75	$ 5.57	-
Estimated GF-S cost (Net of the $68M existing appropriation)	$130,042,000.00	$293,863,000.00	$423,905,000.00
% increase in total Labor Rate	9.8%	10.5%	20.3%

Note: labor rate is inclusive of healthcare, and B&O Tax.

The portion of the health care rate that is necessary to extend dependent health benefits, modeled on charging a premium of $75.00 per month is $0.75 in FY 24 and $1.34 in FY 25. The specific cost associated with this expansion is $80,245,000.00 GF-S for the biennium.

Without going into detail on every component part, below is a breakdown on the non-health care portion of the labor rate increase showing how much is from an increase in base wages and how much is other benefit increases (retirement/PTO/holidays/etc.).

TABLE 4. NON-HEALTH CARE COMPONENTS, LABOR RATE FY 24 – FY 25

	JUNE 2024	JUNE 2025
Wage Types	83.2%	83.1%
Taxes and workers comp (inclusive B&O Tax)	7.3%	7.3%
Non healthcare benefits	9.6%	9.6%

Finally, here is a basic comparison of the “Floor Proposal” and the SEIU 775 Initial Proposal:

	Floor	SEIU 775 Initial
FY 24 Labor Rate	$30.11	$31.33
FY 25 Labor Rate	$30.34	$34.61
Biennial Rate Increase	6.34%	20.3%
Biennial GF-S Cost excluding existing appropriation	$100,133,000.00	$423,905,000.00

C. Recent and historical long-term care and home care increases.

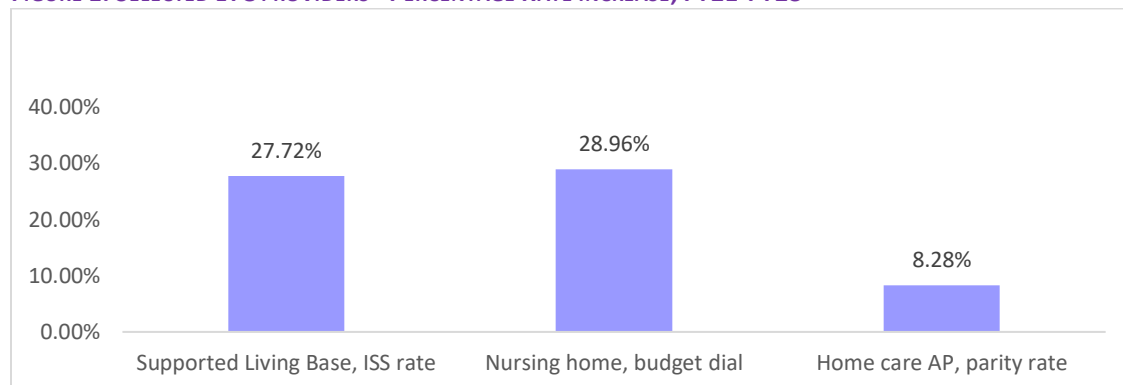

While the rate proposed by SEIU 775 is larger than the typical biennial home care rate increases, this is an extraordinary time with extraordinary inflation and increases in the cost of living, along with a growing crisis within the home care workforce.

Furthermore, there are also recent examples of similar increases in long-term care providers and examples of relatively similar home care rate increases during the Inslee administration.

First, it’s worth looking at what the legislature did with respect to long-term care provider rates in FY 21-23. Our estimate based on data from DSHS, and the Washington Health Care Association is that the legislature funded permanent ongoing rate increases of more than 20% for Skilled Nursing Facilities and Supported Living providers during the current biennium. On the other hand, the legislature funded only a modest permanent increase in home care rates and then did a larger temporary extension of rates (see FIGURE 1). This made sense in the context of creating a bridge to the Rate Setting Board and deferring to the Rate Setting Board to establish permanent increased rates.

Second, while we were not able to look at historical IP full rate increases, we looked at the Agency Provider parity - labor rate increases as a close proxy of the IP rate. TABLE 5 shows the Parity rate changes going back to the FY 2015 – 2017 biennium. To make the comparison as close as possible to the IP labor rate, we excluded both the admin and EVV components of the parity rate.

We found higher percentage increases earlier in the Inslee Administration and then a decrease to 5% per year in the FY19-21 biennium. The larger increases were at least partly based on pent-up need and demand after wage freezes during the Great Recession, but since then have transitioned to more modest increases.

There are similarities between this period and where we were coming out of the Great Recession. Wages will in fact have been largely frozen for the three years preceding the start of FY 24 – workers will have seen an increase of only about 50-cents PER hour over those three years. Combined with the historic level of inflation this creates the need for a more significant increase to not only maintain but to increase rates and wages to address a growing workforce crisis. We would anticipate a similar trend where a more robust rate increase in FY 23-25 is followed by meaningful but more modest increases in the subsequent biennia.

In any case, the historic biennial increases in home care labor rates are all well over the Floor proposal outlined above.

(4) Beginning in the year following the establishment of the initial rate under subsection (1) of this section, and in every even-numbered year thereafter, the rate-setting board shall attempt to determine a proposed labor rate, including a specific amount for health benefits by considering the factors listed in RCW 41.56.465 (1) and (5). In addition, the rate-setting board shall attempt to determine an administrative rate for the consumer directed employer.

RCW 41.56.465: Uniformed personnel—Interest arbitration panel—Determinations—Factors to be considered.

(1) In making its determination, the panel shall be mindful of the legislative purpose enumerated in RCW 41.56.430 and, as additional standards or guidelines to aid it in reaching a decision, the panel shall consider:

(5) For employees listed in RCW 74.39A.270:

- (a) The panel shall consider:
 - (i) A comparison of wages, hours, and conditions of employment of publicly reimbursed personnel providing similar services to similar clients, including clients who are elderly, frail, or have developmental disabilities, both in the state and across the United States; and
 - (ii) The financial ability of the state to pay for the compensation and fringe benefit provisions of a collective bargaining agreement; and
- (b) The panel may consider:
 - (i) A comparison of wages, hours, and conditions of employment of publicly employed personnel providing similar services to similar clients, including clients who are elderly, frail, or have developmental disabilities, both in the state and across the United States;
 - (ii) The state's interest in promoting a stable long-term care workforce to provide quality and reliable care to vulnerable elderly and disabled recipients;
 - (iii) The state's interest in ensuring access to affordable, quality health care for all state citizens; and
 - (iv) The state's fiscal interest in reducing reliance upon public benefit programs including but not limited to medical coupons, food stamps, subsidized housing, and emergency medical services.
