it is also very simple. It is a pathway to promote healthy development in a respectful manner that builds connections, understanding, love, communication, and engagement.

The objectives of the DIR model are to build healthy foundations for social, emotional, and intellectual capacities rather than focusing exclusively on skills and isolated behaviors.

Understanding DIR can help us promote healthy development in all children, but it is especially powerful in helping children on the autism spectrum or with other developmental or emotional challenges.

DIRFloortime® (Floortime) is the application of the DIR® model into practice.

While the DIR® model helps us understand and promote the positive development of all children, DIR and DIRFloortime are most commonly utilized with children with educational, social-emotional, mental health, and/or developmental challenges. DIRFloortime has become most widely known as an approach to support

Office for Victims of Crime: Child Victims and Witness Support Materials

For children and youth, participating in the justice system as a victim or witness can be especially confusing, distressing, and even re-traumatizing. Child Victims and Witnesses Support Materials was created to support children and youth during their involvement with the justice system as a victim or witness to a crime.

Based on the input of national experts and lived experience experts, these materials are intended to teach children about how the justice system works, what their rights are, the roles of the different practitioners they'll meet, and how they can cope with the difficult feelings they might have. For children who have to testify, there are also tips to help them prepare for going to court.

These materials were specifically designed for children of different age groups. However, you can use whichever set of materials seems most appropriate, given the child's stage of development.

Washington Student Achievement Council (Education * Opportunity * Results)

We are working to raise educational attainment through strategic engagement, program management, and partnerships.

What can you find on their website: Financial Aid,
Outreach & Initiatives
And more!

Example of a few of the programs and scholarships available:
Supplemental Education Transition Planning (SETuP) Program: SETuP helps foster youth and unaccompanied homeless youth make the transition from high school to college, career, or service.

Passport to Careers: The Passport to Careers program helps former foster youth and unaccompanied homeless youth prepare for and succeed in college, apprenticeships, or pre-apprenticeship programs

AMERICAN INDIAN ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP: The American Indian Endowed Scholarship (AIES) helps financially needy students with close social and cultural ties to an American Indian community in the state of Washington.
Students can use the scholarships at public colleges and many independent colleges in Washington.
