

Meet the SHDD Behavior Support Trainers

Region 1 - Behavior Support Trainer

Ashley Beckley is a Behavior Support Trainer with the Home and Community Services (HCS) State Hospital Discharge and Diversion (SHDD) team. Her focus in this role is to offer a space for individuals and providers to learn and develop their strengths, while building a sense of confidence and self-sufficiency.

Ashley earned her bachelor's degree in Social Work from Eastern Washington University, moving on to earn her Master's degree from Boise State University. She has worked in the social work field for the past decade in a variety of roles. Her experience includes; student leadership & development, in-home & residential case management, individual & group therapy, and liaison work. These opportunities have allowed Ashley to develop knowledge of mental illness, best-practice treatment modalities, become familiar with community resources, and develop relationships with community providers.

Region 2 - Behavior Support Trainer

Tam Butler is the Behavior Support Trainer for Region 2 within the State Hospital Discharge and Diversion Unit. Tam joined HCS, following a Social Services position in a Skilled Nursing Facility (SNF), as a Nursing Facility Case Manager in the Snohomish and King Counties. This role also included Case Management for the Expanded Community Services in SNF's and AFH's.

Prior to immigrating to the USA from the UK, Tam taught Social Work students, Nursing Home Administrators and Caregivers to attain their Bachelors of Science in Social Work, National Qualifications and certifications to gain their licenses to practice. Tam attained her Bachelors of Science in Social Work and Practice Teachers Award from Suffolk University, UK. Her background includes working within the DDA group home and day care settings, mental health assessment and day care, in-home care agency management, hospital Social Work and Psychogeriatric fields.

Tam strives to promote equality and inclusion for all clients and to maximize their potential to attain their life goals.
