

Fact Sheet: PPW Housing Support Services

Updated:

Overview	Pregnant and Parenting Women Housing Support Services (PPW-HSS) provides housing support services for woman who are pregnant, postpartum, or parenting, and for their children, in drug and alcohol-free residences for up to 18 months. Housing Support Services are classified as support services rather than treatment.
Eligibility Requirements	Women who are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Pregnant, postpartum, or parenting (children age 17 and under) at the time they enter housing support services; • Currently participating in outpatient treatment for substance use disorder or have completed residential or outpatient substance use disorder treatment within the last 12 months; • Are at or below 220% of the Federal Poverty Level or on Medicaid at the time they enter transition housing; and • Not actively involved in using alcohol and other drugs.
Authority	RCW 70.96A
Budget	The budget for this service is allocated by each individual Behavioral Health Organization (BHO) if they choose to fund this resource.
Rates	Determined by each BHO.
Costs/Numbers Served	Available from each BHO.
Partners	Housing Support case managers collaborate with residential and outpatient treatment providers, the courts and legal system, Division of Social and Health Services Case Workers, and housing advocates/providers.
Oversight	Each BHO provides oversight for the Housing Support Services provided in that region.
For more information	Contact BHO Administrators .