Dual Diagnosis 9AM to 4PM

Presented by Joe Buchmann

“Working with people who are diagnosed with both mental illness and developmental/intellectual disabilities can be challenging.

Staff with a deeper understanding of dual diagnosis will be able to provide better-informed care.

Attendees will learn about anxiety disorders, psychotic disorders, depression, and personality disorders, and will discover how they may present in people with developmental disabilities.

Also covered are the challenges of diagnosing mental illness in people with developmental disabilities, various treatment approaches, and how treatments may be adapted to best serve people with dual diagnosis.”

Parking is not available in the Garage attached to our Tacoma DDA office/the Work Source Bldg.

- Current areas are Tacoma Ave S in front of the garage attached to our building and going south on Tacoma Ave S. There are no spots in front of our building and going North on Tacoma Ave S.
