

Name	Concern for Residents of Fircrest	Open Space Preservation	Transportation/Traffic	Trees	Impervious Surfaces	Historic Preservation / Historic Naval Chapel	Hamlin Creek	Tribal Culture	Nursing Facility Design	Other	Summary
Ademasu, Annette										X	Suggestions for improvements of proposed plan regarding climate change and issues of diversity, equity, and inclusion.
Ask, Erling				X							Concern for preservation of tree groves and canopy
Bialic, Trudy	X			X					X		Specific concern regarding issues of plan failing to address housing density requirements by the state. Additionally, strong suggestions regarding the redesign of proposed buildings
B., Barbara		X	X	X	X	X		X	X		Concern for loss of tree canopy and associated impacts for climate mitigation, biodiversity, open space, and air and water quality. Additional concern rests in historic preservation, Nursing Center location and design, residential health, tribal culture, impervious surfaces, and transportation.
Ciurilo, Nancy				X							Concern for preservation of tree groves and canopy
Duwamish Tribal Services								X			Recommend archaeological review of site
Gelb, Laurie		X		X		X			X		Concerns for tree preservation, access to green space, and design of nursing facility
Gelvin, Conor				X						X	Strong concern for preservation of trees
Henry, Peter				X							Overall support, with concern for the preservation of tree canopy
Hood, Rebecca	X								X	X	Comments regarding whereabouts and design of the Adult Training Program Site, the new Nursing Home Site, and the Behavioral Health Facility.
Luft, Kay				X							Concern for tree loss and associated impacts
Maish, Dianna				X					X	X	Concern for trees, nursing facility design, use of more pervious surface for pathways, obtaining National Historic Preservation status for the chapel and trees surrounding, infrastructure updates such as stormwater pipe relocations. Suggested guiding principal "build back better"
North City Water District											No concerns, offered positive feedback regarding suggested improvements to water systems
Sackman, Nancy				X				X			Duwamish Tribe Correspondent, Strong concern for cultural risks associated with plan implementation, specifically regarding potential for archaeological significance
Sapunkova, Kristina				X							Sent graphics of tree coverage in the USA. 'Save the Shoreline's trees'
Save Shoreline Trees Advisory Board		X		X	X	X					General concern for tree preservation, historic value, and impervious surfaces, with specific references to the Shoreline Comprehensive Plan
Snohomish County Public Works											No Comments
Soriano, Sally	X	X	X	X	X	X		X	X		32nd Legislative District Democrats Correspondent. Primary concern for tree loss and associated impacts

Name	Concern for Residents of Fircrest	Open Space Preservation	Transportation/Traffic	Trees	Impervious Surfaces	Historic Preservation / Historic Naval Chapel	Hamlin Creek	Tribal Culture	Nursing Facility Design	Other	Summary
Thornton Creek Alliance				X		X	X				Primary concern rests in potential for significant tree loss and Hamlin Creek. Advocation for Option 2.
Way, Janet	X	X		X		X	X	X	X		Shoreline Preservation Society Correspondence. Requested recognition of historic value of site, and consideration of preservation in development of plans. Expressed concern for the preservation and health of the Urban Forest under proposed plan. Preservation of Open Space for park-land suggested. Concern regarding aesthetics and practicality of Nursing Facility. Suggestion that proposed plan violates both the Shoreline Comprehensive Plan and Climate Action Plan. Concern for Hamlin Creek buffers. Concern for increased impervious surfaces, and threat to native indigenous culture and land resulting from implementation of plan.
Weber, Patricia	X			X							Concern for residents health and happiness, forest preservation, and ability of residents to interact with natural spaces
Winnick, Ken	X	X		X		X	X	X	X		Concern for loss of tree canopy and associated impacts for climate mitigation, biodiversity, open space, and air and water quality. Additional concern rests in historic preservation, Nursing Center location and design, residential health, tribal culture, imperious surfaces, and transportation
Young, Lance				X		X			X		Tree PAC Correspondent. Concerns for building design, historical significance, and ecologic preservation.
Westberg, Vicki	X	X		X	X	X	X	X			Noted her concurrence with everything in Janet Way's letter.