Revised July 11, 2024

Purpose:

WAC 388-487-0010 - What is the sun bucks program?

WAC 388-487-0020 - Is my child eligible for sun bucks?

WAC 388-487-0030 - General information about sun bucks benefits.

Clarifying Information – WAC 388-487-0010

1. SUN Bucks is a one-time $120 food benefit issued directly to each eligible child.
 - a. Benefits will be issued on individual white cards.
 - b. Benefit amount will be adjusted annually for inflation.
2. SUN Bucks is a child nutrition program separate from Basic Food and administered outside of DSHS. The program isn't subject to the same rules as Basic Food and DSHS staff won't determine eligibility for or issue SUN Bucks benefits.

Automatic Eligibility

Most children will automatically qualify for SUN Bucks benefits through receiving certain public assistance programs or free or reduced-price meals at school.

1. To automatically qualify for receiving public assistance, a child must be between the ages of 8 and 18 years old and included in an assistance unit who receives at least one of the following benefits:
 - a. Temporary Assistance for Needy Families \(TANF\)
 - b. State Funded Assistance \(SFA\)
 - c. Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program \(SNAP or Basic Food\)
 - d. Food Assistance Program \(FAP\)
2. To automatically qualify through school, a child must be:
 - a. Enrolled at a school that participates in the National School Lunch Program (NSLP) or School Breakfast Program (SBP), and
 - b. Qualified for free or reduced-price meals; or
 - c. Meeting Income Eligibility Guidelines (IEG - 185% FPL) through a Family Income Survey

Note: Children who automatically receive free or reduced-price meals in Community Eligibility Provision (CEP) or Provision 2 schools won't automatically qualify for SUN Bucks unless they meet income guidelines through a Family Income Survey.

Application Process

For children who aren't automatically eligible, applications will be available through August 31, 2024.

1. To qualify for SUN Bucks via application, a child must be:
 - a. Enrolled at a school that participates in the National School Lunch Program (NSLP) or School Breakfast Program (SBP), and
 - b. Living in a household that meets child nutrition Income Eligibility Guidelines (IEG - 185% FPL).

Note: Income Eligibility Guidelines are adjusted every year on July 1. Family Income Surveys or SUN Bucks applications are subject to income limits in place on the date of application.

Note: Applications are subject to verification on a case-by-case basis. Requested verification must be provided no later than 30 days from the date of application.

Example: Prince receives free meals from the private school he attends. Their school doesn't participate in the NSLP or the SBP and their family doesn't receive any public assistance benefits. Prince doesn't automatically qualify for SUN Bucks. Prince's dad applies for SUN Bucks and their household income is under the IEG limit. Because Prince is not enrolled in an NSLP / SBP school, they aren't eligible for SUN Bucks.

Example: Duey attends a school that automatically qualifies every child for free or reduced-price meals due to Community Eligibility Provision (CEP). Duey's family submitted a Family Income Survey to their school that showed their income is under the IEG (185% FPL) back in September 2023. Duey will be automatically qualified for SUN Bucks.

Example: Ender attends a CEP school that offers free or reduced-price meals regardless of household income. His family doesn't receive public assistance benefits. Ender won't automatically receive a SUN Bucks card. Ender's mom submits a SUN Bucks application online, but their household income is over the IEG limit. Ender doesn't qualify for SUN Bucks.

Example: Delaney is in Kindergarten and is included in an assistance unit that receives Basic Food assistance. Because she is 6 years old, she doesn't meet age requirements to qualify for SUN Bucks for receiving public assistance. Also, Delaney's school doesn't participate in NSLP. Delaney isn't eligible for SUN Bucks.

Example: Josie lives in a household where some of the members receive TANF benefits. Josie isn't included in an assistance unit approved for TANF benefits. Josie isn't automatically qualified for SUN Bucks through receiving public assistance. However, she is attending a school that participates in the NSLP and she receives free or reduced-price meals due to meeting income thresholds. Josie will automatically qualify for SUN Bucks for this reason.

SUN Bucks benefits that are redeemed, expired, lost or stolen due to skimming, phishing, or other fraudulent activity won't be replaced.

Fair Hearing Rights

Households who disagree with any SUN Bucks decision will need to contact the SUN Bucks Customer Service Contact Center at 833-543-3230 (TTY: 1-800-833-6348) between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday-Friday (except observed holidays) for review and attempt to resolve any issues. If a household wishes to continue with a fair hearing, it will be submitted through the SUN Bucks Customer Service Contact Center.

Households have until 90 days following August 31st, 2024 to request a hearing.
