QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

What do you need to know about Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT)?

- If you already have a Washington EBT Quest card you can use it.

← These are the rules about EBT cards

- If you don't have an EBT card you can ask us to send a card in the mail. It should arrive within 10 days.
- You will receive an instruction pamphlet with your EBT card.

Can you give your EBT card to someone to shop for you?

- No, do not give your card or PIN to anyone.
- Contact your worker if someone else shops for you.
- We can give them their own card and PIN for your EBT account.

It's against the law to use your EBT cash assistance to gamble. What is considered gambling?

- Lottery tickets, pull tabs, or punch boards.
- Bingo.
- Horse racing.
- Casino games and other games of chance.

What happens if you gamble with your EBT cash assistance? We could:

- Take legal action.
- Assign a protective payee.
- Stop your cash assistance.

What do you need to know about your Services Card?

- Each person receives their own Services Card.
- Providers may ask to see your card but a card isn't required to access health care services.
- Keep and use the same card even if your health care coverage changes.
- We'll mail your Services Card to you if you don't already have one.
- You can request replacement cards at <http://hrsa.dshs.wa.gov/contact/default.aspx> or by calling 1-800-562-3022.

What do you need to report for cash assistance between reviews?

- When you move.
- When someone moves out of your home.
- When your total gross monthly income (money from all sources before deductions) goes over $197.00.
- When your total liquid resources (such as cash, bank accounts, stocks, or bonds) are worth more than $4,000.
- When you have a change in employment.
- When you get a job or change employers.
- When you change from part-time to full-time or full-time to part-time.
- When you change in your hourly wage rate or salary.
- When you stop working.

These are the rules about reporting changes

What do you need to report for food assistance between reviews?

- When your total monthly gross income (money from all sources before deductions) goes over $1962.00.

How do you report changes?

- Report changes by calling 877-501-2233.

When do you need to report changes?

- For cash and food programs, you must report changes by the 10th of the next month after the change.

What happens if you don't report changes on time?

- Your benefits could stop.
- Your benefits could be late.
- You could receive the wrong amount.
- If you receive more benefits than you should, you must pay them back.

When will we review your case?

- Social Security denies your application for SSI.
- If you haven't been approved for SSI disability after 24 months.
- Your disability review is due on .
- An eligibility review form will be sent before your benefits stop.

Where can you look for more information about DSHS services?

- You are authorized to access information at <https://www.washingtonconnection.org/home/>. This website tells you about other DSHS programs and community resources for you and your family.
