

DCS Provides Public Service at Treaty Days

On Friday, June 7, the Yakima Division of Child Support (DCS) Tribal Team, Juan Ramirez SEO 3, Richard Betancourt SEO 4, and Camille Little District Manager, enjoyed a memorable day participating in the Yakama Nation's 158th Treaty Day Commemoration and Cultural Center 33rd Anniversary.

The Treaty was signed June 9, 1855, ratified by the U.S. Senate on March 8, 1859, and proclaimed law by President James Buchanan on April 18, 1859. Every year tribal members have a parade at their agency, then another parade in the town of White Swan kicks off the annual All Indian Rodeo and Pow-Wow.

Throughout the day, DCS shared information about their program and services and answered questions about child support.

L to R: Richard Betancourt, Camille Little and Juan Ramirez