

Subcommittee Meeting:

Substantially Shared Parenting and Residential Deviation Definition

Date | time 5/20/2019 2:00 PM | Location via WebEx

Facilitator	Nicole Enlow	Attendees Workgroup members : Sharon Redmond, Ann Farnsworth, Tara Miller DCS staff : Monica Turnbaugh, Ian Kinder-Pyle
Note taker	Ann Farnsworth

Substantially shared parenting percentage discussion

- Discussed 30% and 35% threshold
- Discussed meaning of insufficient resources and if the definition should be changed
- Discussed the expenses of each household in a shared parenting scenario

Factors of consideration

- Keep in mind lower income individuals who can't afford representation when talking through these factors for consideration
- The factors for consideration should be put in the statute

Statute Language

- Ann will work on language and send to Nicole for the group when further decisions are made on what the group is recommending

Decisions, tasks, and next steps

- Group will consider their opinions on residential credit, shared parenting, the current ideas and see if they have new ones to bring to the table
- Nicole will get clarification and examples from Tami on the insufficient resources information she brought up at the in person meeting on May 17th

Next meeting:

- Subcommittee meeting Monday, June 3rd from 1:30 – 3:00 pm