

CHILD SUPPORT RECEIVED

Revised October 2014

	ABD	TANF/SFA/RCA	Basic Food		SSI related medical (Includes applicants, deemors and children to whom income can be deemed).
Current Support (court ordered)	Considered income of the child for whom it is intended. Code on the UNER of the child	Recipients - not counted. Applicants - income to the child in the month of application if received prior to TANF/SFA approval	Considered income of the child for whom it is intended. Code on the UNER of the child		Considered income of the child for whom it is intended. Code on the UNER of the child
Arrears (court ordered)	Unearned income coded to the UNER of the parent	Recipients - not counted. Applicants - income to the parent in the month of application if received prior to TANF/SFA approval	Unearned income coded to the UNER of the parent		Considered income of the child for whom it is intended. Code on the UNER of the child
Non court ordered support	Considered income of the child for whom it is intended. Code on the UNER of the child	Considered income of the child for whom it is intended. Code on the UNER of the child	Considered income of the child for whom it is intended. Code on the UNER of the child		Considered income of the child for whom it is intended. Code on the UNER of the child
In kind support (support that is paid to an outside entity in lieu of payment of the support to the individual)	When legally obligated it is considered income of the child for whom it is intended. Unearned income coded to the UNER of the child	When legally obligated it is considered income of the child for whom it is intended. Unearned income coded to the UNER of the child	When legally obligated it is considered income of the child for whom it is intended. Unearned income coded to the UNER of the child		Considered income of the child for whom it is intended. Unearned income coded to the UNER of the child - legally obligated or not.
In kind support (not court ordered/legally obligated)	Not counted.	Not counted.	Not counted.		Considered income of the child for whom it is intended. Unearned income coded to the UNER of the child - legally obligated or not.