Iraqi and Afghan Special Immigrants Benefits

Special Immigrants from Iraq and Afghanistan are qualified aliens and are eligible for federally funded benefits, such as TANF, Basic Food, and Medicaid, to the same extent and for the same time period as refugees. Their eligibility period starts from the date of entry into the United States or, if occurred after the U.S. entry, the date the Special Immigrant status was granted as indicated on the I-551 (green card). (EA-Z Manual)

Step-By-Step Process:

Screening

- Screen all household members into ACES.
- At the programs page, select cash and food assistance.
- If the applicant does not have any minor children, select Refugee.
- Indicate RF (Special Immigrants from Iraq or Afghanistan have the same eligibility) in the program determination criteria if household is not TANF eligible.

Interview Coding

DEM2 : “Citizenship”: L (Documented Alien)

ALAS :

- “Ins Stat”: Code “RF for INS Status and “RF” for Initial INS status for first 8 months of potential eligibility for Refugee Cash/Medical. For all other programs or after the first eight month of potential Refugee eligibility code INS Status as “LA” (Permanent Resident Alien) and Initial INS Status as “SI” (Special Immigrant from Iraq or Afghanistan)
- “Initial INS Stat”: SI (Special Immigrant from Iraq or Afghanistan) for Refugee Cash/Medical “RF”
- “Date INS Stat Granted”, “Entry Date” and “Initial INS Stat Dt”: Use dates from immigration documents

Note: The Entry Date on the ALAS screen is used by ACES to determine the certification period for Refugee Assistance. The certification end date for refugee assistance is no more than eight months from this Entry Date.

Finalizing the Initial Application

Refugee cash and medical assistance for Special Immigrants from Iraq and Afghanistan will end at the end of the 8th month.
