ORIA LEP Pathway ESL Program Manager: Ashley Mai | 206-568-5808 | ashley.mai@dshs.wa.gov

The Limited English Proficiency (LEP) Pathway Program provides employment and ESL services for limited English speaking refugees and immigrants receiving public assistance (TANF, SFA, or RCA). Refugees who are not receiving cash assistance are eligible for services as long as they have resided in the U.S. for five years or less. The LEP Pathway currently has 12 employment providers and 12 ESL providers. The goal and purpose of the LEP Pathway is to assist individuals and families move towards self-sufficiency by providing training and education that leads to employment.
