- e. Except to the extent that disclosure is required by applicable law or court order, all negotiations pursuant to this clause are confidential and shall be treated by the parties as statements made in compromise negotiations for purposes of the rules of evidence.
- f. DSHS and the Contractor agree that, the existence of a dispute notwithstanding, they will continue without delay to carry out all their respective responsibilities under this Contract that are not affected by the dispute.
- g. If the subject of the dispute is the amount due and payable by DSHS for services being provided by the Contractor, the Contractor shall continue providing services pending resolution of the dispute provided DSHS pays the Contractor the amount DSHS, in good faith, believes is due and payable, and places in escrow the difference between such amount and the amount the Contractor, in good faith, believes is due and payable.

- c. The Contractor waives its immunity under Title 51 RCW to the extent it is required to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the State and its agencies, officials, agents, or employees.

25. Industrial Insurance Coverage. The Contractor shall comply with the provisions of Title 51 RCW, Industrial Insurance. If the Contractor fails to provide industrial insurance coverage or fails to pay premiums or penalties on behalf of its employees, as may be required by law, Agency may collect from the Contractor the full amount payable to the Industrial Insurance accident fund. The Agency may deduct the amount owed by the Contractor to the accident fund from the amount payable to the Contractor by the Agency under this contract, and transmit the deducted amount to the Department of Labor and Industries, (L&I) Division of Insurance Services. This provision does not waive any of L&I's rights to collect from the Contractor.

- a. The parties agree that neither the Contractor nor DSHS shall be liable to each other, regardless of the form of action, for consequential, incidental, indirect, or special damages except a claim related to bodily injury or death, or a claim or demand based on patent, copyright, or other intellectual property right infringement, in which case liability shall be as set forth elsewhere in this Contract. - c. If delays are caused by a Subcontractor without its fault or negligence, the Contractor shall not be liable for damages for such delays, unless the services to be performed were obtainable on comparable terms from other sources in sufficient time to permit the Contractor to meet its required performance schedule.
- d. Neither party shall be liable for personal injury to the other party or damage to the other party's property except personal injury or damage to property proximately caused by such party's respective fault or negligence.

27. Notice of Overpayment. If the Contractor receives a Contractor overpayment notice or a letter communicating the existence of an overpayment from DSHS, the Contractor may protest the overpayment determination by requesting an adjudicative proceeding. The Contractor's request for an adjudicative proceeding must:

- a. Be received by the Office of Financial Recovery (OFR) at Post Office Box 9501, Olympia, Washington 98507-9501, within twenty-eight (28) calendar days of service of the notice;
- b. Be sent by certified mail (return receipt) or other manner that proves OFR received the request;

Timely and complete requests will be scheduled for a formal hearing by the Office of Administrative Hearings. The Contractor may be offered a pre-hearing or alternative dispute resolution conference in an attempt to resolve the overpayment dispute prior to the hearing.

Failure to provide OFR with a written request for a hearing within twenty-eight (28) days of service of a Contractor overpayment notice or other overpayment letter will result in an overpayment debt against the Contractor. DSHS may charge the Contractor interest and any costs associated with the collection of this overpayment. DSHS may collect an overpayment debt through lien, foreclosure, seizure and sale of the Contractor's real or personal property; order to withhold and deliver; or any other collection action available to DSHS to satisfy the overpayment debt.

28. Ownership/Rights in Data

DSHS and the Contractor agree that all data and work products (collectively called "Work Product") produced pursuant to this Contract shall be considered work made for hire under the U.S. Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §101 et seq, and shall be owned by DSHS. The Contractor is hereby commissioned to create the Work Product. For purposes of this contract, "Software" shall mean the object code version of computer programs licensed pursuant to this Contract. Software also means the source code version, where provided by the Contractor. Embedded code, firmware, internal code, microcode, and any other term referring to software residing in the equipment that is necessary for the proper operation of the equipment is not included in this definition of Software. Software includes all prior, current, and future versions of the Software and all maintenance updates and error corrections.

- b. If for any reason the Work Product would not be considered a work made for hire under applicable law, the Contractor assigns and transfers to DSHS the entire right, title and interest in and to all rights in the Work Product and any registrations and copyright applications relating thereto and any renewals and extensions thereof.
- c. The Contractor shall execute all documents and perform such other proper acts as DSHS may deem necessary to secure for DSHS the rights pursuant to this section.
- d. The Contractor shall not use or in any manner disseminate any Work Product to any third party, or represent in any way Contractor ownership in any Work Product, without the prior written permission of DSHS. The Contractor shall take all reasonable steps necessary to ensure that its agents, employees, or Subcontractors shall not copy or disclose, transmit or perform any Work Product or any portion thereof, in any form, to any third party.
- e. Material that is delivered under this Contract, but that does not originate therefrom ("Preexisting Material"), shall be transferred to DSHS with a nonexclusive, royalty-free, irrevocable license to publish, translate, reproduce, deliver, perform, display, and dispose of such Preexisting Material, and to authorize others to do so except that such license shall be limited to the extent to which Contractor has a right to grant such a license. The Contractor shall exert all reasonable effort to advise DSHS at the time of delivery of Preexisting Material furnished under this Contract, of all known or potential infringements of publicity, privacy or of intellectual property contained therein and of any portion of such document which was not produced in the performance of this Contract. The Contractor agrees to obtain, at its own expense, express written consent of the copyright holder for the inclusion of Preexisting Material. DSHS shall receive prompt written notice of each notice or claim of copyright infringement or infringement of other intellectual property right worldwide received by the Contractor with respect to any Preexisting Material delivered under this Contract. DSHS shall have the right to modify or remove any restrictive markings placed upon the Preexisting Material by the Contractor.

29. Patent and Copyright Indemnification.

- a. The Contractor, at its expense, shall defend, indemnify, and hold DSHS harmless from and against any claims against DSHS that any Product or Work Product supplied hereunder, or DSHS's use of the Product or Work Product within the terms of this Contract, infringes any patent, copyright, utility model, industrial design, mask work, trade secret, trademark, or other similar proprietary right of a third party worldwide. (Product shall mean shall mean any Contractor-supplied equipment, Software, and documentation. The Contractor shall pay all costs of such defense and settlement and any penalties, costs, damages and attorneys' fees awarded by a court or incurred by DSHS provided that DSHS:

(1) Promptly notifies the Contractor in writing of the claim, but DSHS's failure to provide timely

General Terms and Conditions

notice shall only relieve the Contractor from its indemnification obligations if and to the extent such late notice prejudiced the defense or resulted in increased expense or loss to the Contractor; and

(2) Cooperates with and agrees to use its best efforts to encourage the Office of the Attorney General of Washington to grant the Contractor sole control of the defense and all related settlement negotiations.

b. If such claim has occurred, or in the Contractor's opinion is likely to occur, DSHS agrees to permit the Contractor, at its option and expense, either to procure for DSHS the right to continue using the Product or Work Product or to replace or modify the same so that they become noninfringing and functionally equivalent. If use of the Product or Work Product is enjoined by a court and the Contractor determines that none of these alternatives is reasonably available, the Contractor, at its risk and expense, will take back the Product or Work Product and provide DSHS a refund. In the case of Work Product, the Contractor shall refund to DSHS the entire amount DSHS paid to the Contractor for the Contractor's provision of the Work Product. In the case of Product, the Contractor shall refund to DSHS its depreciated value. No termination charges will be payable on such returned Product, and DSHS will pay only those charges that were payable prior to the date of such return. Depreciated value shall be calculated on the basis of a useful life of four (4) years commencing on the date of purchase and shall be an equal amount per year over said useful life. The depreciation for fractional parts of a year shall be prorated on the basis of three hundred sixty-five (365) days per year. In the event the Product has been installed less than one (1) year, all costs associated with the initial installation paid by DSHS shall be refunded by the Contractor.

c. The Contractor has no liability for any claim of infringement arising solely from:

(1) The Contractor's compliance with any designs, specifications or instructions of DSHS;

(2) Modification of the Product or Work Product by DSHS or a third party without the prior knowledge and approval of the Contractor; or

(3) Use of the Product or Work Product in a way not specified by the Contractor;

unless the claim arose against the Contractor's Product or Work Product independently of any of these specified actions.

d. This Section, Patent and Copyright Indemnification, is intended to survive the expiration or termination of the agreement.

30. Public Records Act. The Contractor acknowledges that DSHS is subject to the Public Records Act (Chapter 42.56 RCW) and that this Contract is a public record as defined in Chapter 42.56 RCW. Proprietary Information includes, but is not limited to, information protected by copyright, patent, trademark, or trade secret laws. To the extent consistent with Chapter 42.56 RCW, DSHS will maintain the confidentiality of all such information marked Proprietary Information. If a public disclosure request is made to view the Contractor's Proprietary Information, DSHS will notify the Contractor of the request and of the date that such records will be released to the requester unless the Contractor obtains a court order from a court of competent jurisdiction enjoining that disclosure. If the Contractor fails to obtain the court order enjoining disclosure, DSHS will release the requested information on the date specified.

31. Publicity. The Contractor shall not name DSHS as a customer, nor use any information related to this

34. Termination for Convenience. DSHS may terminate this Contract in whole or in part when it is in the best interest of DSHS by giving the Contractor at least thirty (30) calendar days' written notice.
35. Termination for Default. The Contracts Administrator may immediately terminate this Contract for default, in whole or in part, by written notice to the Contractor if DSHS has a reasonable basis to believe that the Contractor has:
