

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES
JUVENILE REHABILITATION ADMINISTRATION (JRA)

IN THE MATTER OF PAROLE OF

Name _____

JRA Number _____

Date of Birth _____

ORDER OF CONTINUED DETENTION OR RELEASE

THIS MATTER came before the undersigned parole supervisor or designee to determine whether the above-named juvenile should remain in detention. The undersigned parole supervisor or designee finds and concludes as follows:

1. The above-named juvenile is an adjudicated juvenile offender on parole and under the supervision of the Department of Social and Health Services.
2. The juvenile's parole officer suspended the juvenile's parole for the following alleged violation of the Order of Parole Conditions:

3. Based on evidence presented by the juvenile and the juvenile's parole officer,
 - there is probable cause to believe the Order of Parole Conditions was violated, and
 - the juvenile poses an imminent danger to himself/herself, or to other persons; or
 - the juvenile is unlikely to voluntarily appear at a parole revocation hearing; or
 - the juvenile does not pose an imminent danger to himself/herself or other persons and is likely to voluntarily appear at a parole revocation hearing.
 - There is not probable cause to believe the Order of Parole Conditions was violated.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED the above-named juvenile

- remain in detention until further order of the Department of Social and Health Services;
- be released from detention pending a parole revocation hearing.

DATED this _____ day of _____, _____.

JUVENILE PAROLE SUPERVISOR OR DESIGNEE

DISTRIBUTION: Parole
Parent/Guardian
Juvenile's Attorney
Parole File
Regional Office
Administrative Law Judge
Detention/Adult Jail