Appointment Letter for Division of Child Support (DCS) Good Cause Determination

Appointment Letter for Division of Child Support (DCS) Good Cause Determination

In the State of Washington, Division of Child Support (DCS) has determined that you are entitled to TANF benefits due to good cause. The determination is based on the following:

1. You are currently receiving cash assistance through the TANF program.
2. You have been determined to be ineligible for cash assistance due to good cause.
3. You have been determined to be ineligible for cash assistance due to income and resources.

If you have any questions or need further information, please contact the TANF office at 1-888-201-1014.
