Introduction to New Hire Reporting

Federal and state laws require you to report all newly hired employees to the Division of Child Support (DCS) within 20 days of hire. A “newly hired” employee is one who has not worked for you before, or one who has returned to work after a separation of at least 60 consecutive days. DCS enclosed reporting instructions and an Employer’s Guide to Child Support containing additional information. Enclosed are reporting instructions. For more information, e-mail DCS at: dcshire@dshs.wa.gov or call us at: 800-562-0479.

New hire reporting helps DCS collect child support efficiently, reduces dependence on the State for basic needs, and saves taxpayers money. Visit childsupportonline.wa.gov for more information and a copy of the Employer’s Guide to Child Support.

New hire reporting also helps the state of Washington stop unemployment insurance, workers compensation, and public assistance fraud. Preventing fraud helps keep tax and premium rates stable and protects benefits for workers who are entitled to coverage.

DCS recognizes Indian tribal sovereignty. Indian tribes, tribally owned businesses, and Indian owned businesses located on reservations are exempt from new hire reporting requirements. However, voluntarily reporting of new or re-hired employees is appreciated.
