FAMILY PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT

CHILDREN’S ADMINISTRATION
FAMILY ASSESSMENT RESPONSE

Family Participation Agreement

The Family Participation Agreement (FAR) is completed by the case worker (CA) with input from the family. The FAR is completed by the family to respond to the Case Plan (CPS) and to ensure that the family understands and agrees to the specific actions required of them.

The FAR is completed by the family to ensure that they understand the Family Participation Agreement (FAR) and to agree to the specific actions required by the Case Plan (CPS) and the Children’s Administration (CA). The FAR is completed by the family to ensure that they understand the Family Participation Agreement (FAR) and to agree to the specific actions required by the Case Plan (CPS) and the Children’s Administration (CA).

FAR is completed by the family to ensure that they understand the Family Participation Agreement (FAR) and to agree to the specific actions required by the Case Plan (CPS) and the Children’s Administration (CA). The FAR is completed by the family to ensure that they understand the Family Participation Agreement (FAR) and to agree to the specific actions required by the Case Plan (CPS) and the Children’s Administration (CA).

FAR is completed by the family to ensure that they understand the Family Participation Agreement (FAR) and to agree to the specific actions required by the Case Plan (CPS) and the Children’s Administration (CA). The FAR is completed by the family to ensure that they understand the Family Participation Agreement (FAR) and to agree to the specific actions required by the Case Plan (CPS) and the Children’s Administration (CA).

FAR is completed by the family to ensure that they understand the Family Participation Agreement (FAR) and to agree to the specific actions required by the Case Plan (CPS) and the Children’s Administration (CA). The FAR is completed by the family to ensure that they understand the Family Participation Agreement (FAR) and to agree to the specific actions required by the Case Plan (CPS) and the Children’s Administration (CA).