

Requesting Reasonable Accommodation

UNDERSTAND

The Department of Social and Health Services is committed to providing Reasonable Accommodations to afford an individual with a disability an equal employment opportunity. Within the Human Resources Division a Reasonable Accommodation Specialist will assist in facilitating the interactive reasonable accommodation process where the employee with a disability and management work together to identify effective accommodations that will allow the employee an equal employment opportunity.

TAKE ACTION

If you require assistance in addressing a request for Reasonable Accommodation, or if you have any questions about Reasonable Accommodation, please contact the Reasonable Accommodation Specialist assigned to your area:
