Since 2007, Mike Mowrey has been a Tribal Relations Program Administrator – TANF for the Economic Services Administration’s (ESA) State Tribal Relations Unit (STRU). He assists in formulating statewide tribal specific policy and provides legal research on Tribal TANF and other ESA tribal-relate issues. In addition, he coordinates all aspects of the negotiations of tribal TANF intergovernmental agreements, contracts, or agreed upon processes.

Prior to his current position, Mike worked for the Division of Child Support (DCS) for 14 years. His experience with DCS included the positions of Policy Manager and Claims Officer.

He received his Bachelor of Arts Degree in 1985 from Gonzaga University and a Juris Doctorate from Gonzaga University Law School in 1990.
