

Accessibility Statement

The Washington State Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS) is committed to making its' Information and Communication Technologies accessible to individuals with disabilities by meeting or exceeding federal and state requirements. We strive to ensure that individuals with disabilities have access to and use of information and data comparable to the access and use afforded to individuals without disabilities, unless an undue burden would be imposed on the agency.

DSHS recognizes that creating accessible products is a continuous process that can only be improved by continuous input from our users. If you require assistance or wish to report an issue related to accessibility, please contact our Accessibility Coordinator at Younget@dshs.wa.gov or 360.902.8110
