DVR counselor is responsible for approving that services are consistent with the customer's vocational assessment. This includes discussing considerations for customer health and safety that may be inconsistent with certain kinds of work, and any factors that may require additional caution due to COVID-19.

CRP is responsible for ensuring that any services provided in-person include protocols for health and safety, including any protocols for minimizing the spread of COVID-19. CRP is also responsible to support the customer in understanding the health and safety risks that may be associated with the specific employment settings explored while providing services.

Customers are encouraged to speak with both CRP and DVR counselor if they have any concerns about the health and safety risks of the site where they receive services. If the customer feels unsafe, they may let their CRP or their DVR counselor know what is making them feel unsafe.
