Your Cash and Food Assistance Rights and Responsibilities

Rights (ทรัพย์สินความสิทธิ์)

- EBT (Electronic Benefits Transfer) Card: EBT card holders are entitled to use EBT cards for purchases at approved retailers. EBT card holders can use their cards for all eligible food and cash assistance purchases. EBT cards cannot be used for non-essential items such as alcohol, tobacco, or gambling.

- HCE (Health Care Exchange): HCE provides health insurance coverage for individuals and families. HCE eligibility is based on income and family size.

Responsibilities (หน้าที่)

- EBT (Electronic Benefits Transfer) Card: EBT card holders are responsible for using their cards only for eligible purchases. They must keep their EBT cards safe and secure and report any loss or theft immediately.

- Health Care Exchange (HCE): EBT card holders are responsible for reporting any changes in their income or family size to HCE.

- Washington State Department of Social and Health Services (DSHS): DSHS is responsible for administering EBT and HCE programs. DSHS must ensure that all rules and regulations are followed.

- Your Cash and Food Rights and Responsibilities: These rights and responsibilities are provided by law and are enforced by the state. Violations of these rights and responsibilities may result in legal action.

- Traffic control: EBT card holders are responsible for using EBT cards only in authorized locations and not for gambling.

- EBT card providers: EBT card providers must ensure that EBT cards are only used for eligible purchases.
