Your DSHS Cash or Food Benefits

DSHS Cash Grants
TANF, Refugee Cash, ABD Cash, Diversion

☐ Purpose
DSHS provides cash grants to low-income residents who qualify for public assistance programs. These benefits help pay for basic living expenses (RCW 74.04.770).

TANF cash grants must be used only for the benefit of children in your care. We can require proof you are using your TANF grant for the children’s needs (RCW 74.12.260).

☐ Appropriate Use
You may use your cash grant for living expenses such as:
- Shelter
- Fuel
- Food
- Transportation
- Clothing
- Home maintenance
- Personal hygiene
- Employment expenses

☐ Illegal Use
Under RCW 74.08.580, it’s not legal to use Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) cards or cash from EBT cards to:
- Gamble. Gambling includes lottery tickets, pull tabs, punch boards, bingo, horse racing, casino games, and any game of chance found in RCW 9.46, 67.16, and 67.70.
- Buy services in tattoo, body piercing, or body art shops.
- Buy cigarettes or tobacco.
- Buy alcoholic items.
- Buy goods or services in:
  - Taverns.
  - Beer or wine shops unless authorized as a SNAP or WIC retailer.
  - Nightclubs.
  - Bail bond agencies.
  - Gambling establishments.
  - Adult entertainment venues with erotic performances.
  - Any place where someone under the age of 18 isn’t allowed
    - For example, marijuana retailers where marijuana and/or marijuana-based products are sold.

DSHS Food Benefits

☐ Purpose
DSHS food assistance programs include:
- Basic Food.
- Food Assistance Program for legal immigrants (FAP).
- Washington Combined Application Project (WASHCAP).
- Transitional Food Assistance (TFA).

These programs provide assistance for low-income people to buy food with electronic benefits transfer (EBT) cards.

☐ Appropriate Use
You, and your household, may use your food benefits to buy food from a retailer authorized by the USDA, Food and Nutrition Service (FNS).

You may use your benefits to buy:
- Breads and cereals.
- Fruits and vegetables.
- Cheese, milk, and dairy products.
- Meats, fish, poultry, and eggs.
- Most food other than prepared hot foods.
- Seeds and plants that produce food.

☐ Illegal Use
It is illegal to:
- Use food benefits for anything other than to buy food for eligible household members.
- Sell, or attempt to sell, your EBT card.
- Exchange your benefits, or the food purchased with your EBT card, for anything of value (trafficking).

Examples of illegal trafficking include exchanging food benefits for cash, drugs, or weapons.
- Give your benefits to anyone who isn’t in your household.
- Use food benefits to buy non-food items. Examples include cigarettes, tobacco, beer, wine, liquor, household supplies, soap, paper products, vitamins, medicine, or pet food.
- Use your food benefits to pay on credit accounts.

By signing below, I agree that the appropriate and legal use of DSHS cash and food benefits have been explained. I understand the proper use of benefits and the penalties for illegal use. I understand my eligibility for DSHS benefits isn’t affected if I don’t sign this form. Anyone who fails to sign this form is still subject to program or criminal penalties for illegal use of benefits.

I understand my EBT card provides DSHS with a history of my transactions, including where I use my card. I understand DSHS will use this information, and my history of requests for replacement cards, to investigate misuse of cash grants or food benefits.
