

Residential Habilitation for Dependent Agreement for Youth (Age 18-20)

This is an agreement between _____ (Youth's Name) and the Developmental Disabilities Administration. A Residential Habilitation for Dependent Youth (RHDY) Agreement is required for individuals, aged 18 to 20 who have been approved for, and in receipt of RHDY, prior to their 18th birthday. It is understood by the youth that participation in the RHDY program is voluntary. This agreement remains valid when the youth is actively working toward completion of their high school education, General Education Development (GED), or vocational school program. If the youth opts to discontinue their education or vocational supports, transition planning to adult services must begin. This plan cannot extend past the youth's 21st birthday.

Youth's Name (First, Name, Last)	Date of Birth	ADSA ID Number
----------------------------------	---------------	----------------

18-20 Year Old Client Agrees To:

I agree to continue receiving services through the RHDY program with a DDA licensed / certified Provider in order to complete my high school education, GED or vocational program. I agree to:

1. Participate in Independent Living Skills programming when offered, available and appropriate.
2. Actively pursue completing my high school education, GED, or vocational school program.
3. Provide documentation of my educational / vocational school participation.
4. Follow the rules of the educational / vocational school program.

DDA Agrees To:

1. Continue to authorize services through the RHDY program needed to help enable the youth to complete their high school education, GED or vocational program.
2. Verify the youth's participation in an educational / vocational school program
3. Annually complete the person-centered service plan and conduct health and safety visits with the youth every 90 days.

Limitations of This Plan:

1. This agreement will end when the youth completes their high school education, GED or vocational program or turns 21 years of age, whichever comes first.
2. This agreement will end if the youth stops actively working to complete their high school education, GED, vocational program or is terminated from those programs.
3. This agreement will end if the youth does not meet criteria for the DDA Home and Community Based Services waiver under WAC 388-845-0030

This agreement begins on _____ and ends by _____.
