

Applying for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families?

Now what?

If you're ready to jump start your career, check out the Commerce WorkFirst Program!

COMMERCE WORKFIRST Explore Your Career Potential with Commerce WorkFirst! Whether you're just starting out or building on existing skills, Commerce WorkFirst offers programs tailored to meet your needs and help you take steps toward a stable and rewarding career. The Community Jobs Program provides up to nine months of support, including part-time options for single parents with children under six. The Community Works Program, lasting between one and twelve months, customizes participation hours to fit your unique circumstances. No matter your background or experience level, Commerce WorkFirst is committed to helping you succeed.

Our programs:

- Combine on-the-job training and work experience with skill development and support services.
- Help find worksites that build on your career interests, skills and abilities.

Community Jobs/Career Jump:

- Create a powerful resume and learn how to get the right job through job-readiness and job-hunting activities designed just for you.
- Get individual coaching, community connections and support with work-based challenges.

Community Works:

- Gain work experience and references for your resume while increasing your skills.
- Get support towards an educational pathway, when you are transitioning between activities, or have competing priorities.
- One to twelve months of work experience while you are in transition or if you want to build work skills.

Sound interesting?

Ask your Department of Social and Health Services case manager for a Commerce WorkFirst career coach referral.

