Nondiscrimination Policy

This brochure:

- Contains general information about the Department of Social and Health Services policy on nondiscrimination, equal opportunity and discrimination complaint procedures.
- Describes services available to persons who believe they have been discriminated against in employment and service delivery.
- States the department's commitment to providing equal opportunity and services to all individuals.
- Provides contact information for the Investigations Unit (IU) of the Department of Social and Health Services.

Retaliation

State and federal laws and DSHS policy prohibit retaliation. Any person who has filed a discrimination complaint or who has assisted in the investigation of a discrimination complaint shall not be intimidated, threatened, coerced, or discriminated against if they subsequently submit a complaint to the Investigations Unit. If appropriate, IU staff will investigate the complaint and determine jurisdiction and contact you.

Policy

The Washington state Department of Social and Health Services is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of age, sex, sexual orientation, gender, gender identity/expression, marital status, race, creed, color, national origin, religion or beliefs, political affiliation, military status, honorably discharged veteran, Vietnam Era, recently separated or other protected veteran status, the presence of any sensory, mental, physical disability or the use of a trained dog guide or service animal by a person with a disability, equal pay or genetic information.

Inequitable practices that occur in service delivery or employment, based on the factors above, violate the DSHS Nondiscrimination Policy. Some of these practices are:

- Denial of services or benefits.
- Refusal to hire or promote.
- Failure to provide appropriate interpreter services, including American Sign Language (ASL).
- Limiting access to services because of inaccessible facilities.
- Failure to make reasonable accommodations to allow full participation of persons with disabilities in all programs, activities and services.
- Denying the opportunity to act as a consultant or volunteer or serve on committees and boards.

Discrimination Complaints

If you believe you have been discriminated against, complete the discrimination complaint form on the back side of this brochure and forward to the Investigations Unit Administrator, Grievance Coordinator for Section 504, Title II and Other Civil Rights Laws, Human Resources Division, Investigations Unit. If you know of discrimination based on the previously mentioned factors, contact the Investigations Unit. In accordance with state and federal laws, you also may file a complaint with:

- Washington State Human Rights Commission; 1-800-233-3247
- U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office for Civil Rights; 1-800-362-1710 (Filing a complaint with the Investigations Unit does not preclude you from filing with the Office for Civil Rights).
