1. The employee requesting leave must submit a request to their supervisor or designee, using the program area’s approved request form or process.

2. If an employee takes unplanned leave, the employee must submit a leave request immediately upon return to work. Failure to submit a leave request may result in unauthorized leave without pay, which may result in disciplinary action.

3. When considering a request for vacation leave, the supervisor must consider the desires of the employee, but may require the leave to be taken at another time based on the organization’s business need.

4. The supervisor will deny leave requests when the employee does not have sufficient leave to cover the absence.

5. Vacation leave for religious observances may be granted, depending on the department’s business need.

6. Vacation and sick leave requests will be charged in one-tenth (1/10) of an hour increments.

7. An employee who is approved to receive partial wage replacement for paid family and medical leave under title 50 RCW may receive partial wage replacement for paid family and medical leave, use accrued paid leave, or combine the partial wage replacement for paid family and medical leave and use accrued paid leave as a supplemental benefit.

a. An employee may use accrued paid leave as a supplemental benefit, prior to receiving approval for paid family and medical leave under title 50 RCW.

8. If an employee is absent at the end of the pay cycle, the supervisor will submit a leave request on behalf of the employee for time and attendance processing.

B. Vacation leave accrual (WAC 357-31-165, WAC 357-31-175)

1. Full time employees accrue leave per (WAC 357-31-165.

Part time employees accrue leave per WAC 357-31-170.

2. Full time general government employees who take leave without pay or are subject to temporary layoff during the month, accrue leave per WAC 357-31-175.

1. Annual leave must be earned before it may be used (WAC 351-31-195).

2. An employee’s request to use vacation leave must be approved under the following conditions (WAC 357-31-200):
   a. As a result of the employee’s serious health condition;
   b. To care for a spouse, registered domestic partner, parent, parent-in-law, or grandparent of the employee who has a serious health condition or an emergency health condition;
   c. To care for a minor or dependent child with a health condition that requires treatment or supervision;
   d. For parental leave as provided in WAC 357-31-460;
   e. When the employee or the employee’s family member, as defined in chapter 357-01 WAC, is a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking as defined in RCW 49.76.020; or
   f. Per WAC 357-31-373, for an employee to be with a spouse or registered domestic partner who is a member of the armed forces of the United States, National Guard, or reserves after the military spouse or registered domestic partner has been notified of an impending call or order to active duty, before deployment, or when the military spouse or registered domestic partner is on leave from deployment.
   g. When requested as a supplemental benefit while receiving a partial wage replacement for paid family and medical leave under title 50A RCW per WAC 357-31-248.
The appointing authority or designee may require verification of the reasons for vacation leave for the conditions described in this section, per WAC 357-31-730.

3. Requests for vacation leave must be submitted in advance with the exception of requests:
   a. To respond to family care emergencies or emergency health condition as provided in WAC 357-31-200; or
   b. When the employee is a victim or has a family member as defined in chapter 357-01 WAC, who is a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking as defined in RCW 49.76.020.

When advance notice cannot be given because of an emergency or unforeseen circumstance due to domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking, the employee or the employee’s designee must give notice to the department no later than the end of the first day that the employee takes such leave.

4. When considering requests for vacation leave, the department must consider the needs of the employee but may require that leave be taken when it least interferes with the department’s operational needs (WAC 357-31-205).

5. An employee may accumulate a maximum of thirty working days (240 hours) of vacation leave. There are two exceptions in which vacation leave may be accumulated above the thirty working days (240 hours) maximum (WAC 357-31-215).
   a. If the department denies an employee’s request for vacation leave, and the employee is close to the maximum vacation leave (240 hours), the department must grant an extension for each month that the department defers the employee’s request for vacation leave.
      i. The department must justify the extension with a statement of necessity.
   b. As an alternative, employees may also accumulate vacation leave in excess of the maximum vacation leave (240 hours) as follows:
      i. An employee may accumulate the vacation leave between the time thirty days is accrued and their next anniversary date. Leave accumulated above the maximum vacation leave (240 hours) must be used by the next anniversary date.
      ii. A statement of necessity, as described in subsection (1) of this section, can only defer leave that the employee has not accrued as of the date of the statement of necessity. Any accrued leave in excess of 240 hours as of the date of the statement of necessity cannot be deferred regardless of circumstances.

Example:
On June 15th, an employee is assigned to work on a special project. The assignment is expected to last six months. Due to an ambitious timeline and strict deadlines, the employee is not able to take any vacation leave during that time.

- On June 15th, the employee's vacation leave balance is two hundred sixty hours.
- The employee accrues ten hours monthly.
- The employee’s anniversary date is October 16th.

Since the employee cannot use leave from June 15th through December 15th the employee files a statement of necessity asking to defer the leave accrued during this time. This deferred leave will not be lost as long as the employee uses the deferred hours by their next anniversary date (October 16th of the following year).

The statement of necessity does not cover the employee’s twenty hours of excess vacation leave from June 15th.

6. Requests for approval to accumulate leave in excess of 240 hours must be submitted by the appointing authority or designee to the senior director of human resources and include the following (WAC 357-31-220):
   a. The date on which the statement of necessity was authorized;
   b. Justification for denial of the employee's leave request;
   c. Date upon which the employee will resume leave usage;
   d. The employee’s total leave balance on their anniversary date;
   e. The employee’s accrual rate; and
   f. The employee’s leave balance at the time of the request.

D. Unauthorized leave (WAC 357-31-105)

1. Unauthorized absence will be treated as unauthorized leave without pay and may be grounds for separation (WAC 357-46-210), or discipline (chapter 357-40 WAC).

1. Sick leave must be accrued before an employee may use it. (WAC 357-31-140)

2. Supervisors must allow the use of accrued sick leave under the following circumstances:
   a. Due to and during mental or physical illness, disability, injury, or health condition that has incapacitated the employee from performing required duties;
   b. The employee is exposed to a contagious disease and their presence at work would jeopardize the health of others;
i. Employees will contribute to a healthy workplace, including not knowingly exposing co-workers and the public to conditions that would jeopardize their health or the health of others. The department may direct employees to use sick leave when employees self-report a contagious health condition.

c. When the employee’s duty station has been closed by order of a public official for any health related reason, or when an employee’s child’s school or place of care has been closed for such reason.;

d. To care for a spouse, secretary of state registered domestic partner, parent, parent-in-law, or grandparent of the employee with a mental or physical illness, injury or health condition; care of a family member who needs medical diagnosis, care or treatment of a mental or physical illness, injury or health condition; or care for a family member who needs preventive medical care;

e. For family care emergencies such as minor or dependent child emergencies or elder care emergencies. (WAC 357-31-290, 295, 300, and 305);

h. When an employee is required to be absent from work to care for members of the employee’s household or relatives of the employee or relatives of the employee’s spouse or registered domestic partner who experience an illness or injury;

i. Up to five days of accumulated sick leave must be approved for each occurrence. The supervisor or designee may approve additional days.

j. For purposes of this subsection, "relatives" is limited to spouse, registered domestic partner, child, grandchild, grandparent, or parent.

i. If the employee or a member of the employee’s family is a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The supervisor or designee may require verification (WAC 357-31-730); or

j. For the employee to be with a spouse or registered domestic partner who is a member of the Armed Forces of the United States, National Guard, or reserves and:

i. The military spouse or registered domestic partner has been notified of an impending call or order to active duty;

ii. Before the military spouse or registered domestic partner is deployed;

iii. The military spouse or registered domestic partner is on leave from deployment.

k. When requested as a supplemental benefit while receiving a partial wage replacement for paid family and medical leave under title 50A RCW per WAC 357-31-248. Leave taken under this subsection may be subject to verification that the employee is approved to receive benefits for paid family and medical leave under title 50A RCW.

3. The appointing authority or designee may require medical verification of the reason for sick leave use per WAC 296-128-660.
   a. An employee returning to work after any sick leave absence may be required to provide written certification from their health care provider to certify that the employee is able to return to work and perform the essential functions of the job with or without reasonable accommodation.
      i. The certification must not require that the information provided explain the nature of the health condition.
      ii. If any health information is provided, the department must treat such information in a confidential manner consistent with applicable privacy laws.
   b. If sick leave abuse is suspected, the appointing authority or designee may require a written medical certificate for any sick leave absence.

4. For anticipated absences, such as medical appointments, the employee must submit a request for leave using the program’s approved form or process before the anticipated absence.
   a. If a request cannot be submitted prior to the absence, an employee must promptly notify their supervisor on the first day of sick leave and each day thereafter, unless there is mutual agreement to do otherwise.
   b. Upon returning to work after using unanticipated sick leave, the employee must immediately submit a leave request. Failure to do so may result in unauthorized leave without pay and may result in disciplinary action.

5. If the employee is on vacation leave the appointing authority or designee may allow the employee to use accrued sick leave in place of vacation leave if one or more of the factors listed in C.1., above occurs.

6. An employee may be denied the use of compensatory time or vacation leave for sick leave purposes if the employee has documented attendance problems.

F. Bereavement leave (WAC 357-31-250)

1. If an employee’s family or household member dies, the employee is authorized to use up to three days of paid bereavement leave for condolence or bereavement.

time, sick leave, vacation leave, personal holiday, or leave without pay for bereavement purposes.

O. Paid family medical leave (PFML) (Title 192 WAC, title 50A RCW)

1. The Washington Family Leave Act (WAC 357-31-520, chapter 49.78 RCW) sunset on December 31, 2019. Effective January 1, 2020, Washington workers who need leave for a serious health condition, to care for a family member, to welcome a new child into the employee’s family or for a military-related event may apply for paid leave through the Employment Security Department (ESD) (WAC 192-500-035, WAC 192-610-005).

2. PFML does not replace FMLA. PFML and FMLA are separate entitlements. The department cannot interfere with, restrain or deny an employee’s use of PFML (WAC 192-570-020, WAC 192-610-075).
Generally, if the employee qualifies for FMLA for a condition that also qualifies under PFML, then PFML and FMLA run concurrently.

3. PFML functions as a partial wage replacement insurance program (RCW 50A.05.005). The PFML program is administered by ESD. The program is funded by premiums paid by employees and employers, which began in January 2019 (RCW 50A.10.030, WAC 192-510-065). Employees file a weekly claim to receive payments through ESD (WAC 192-620-010). Payment is based on a percentage of the employee’s weekly earnings, and is determined and administered by ESD (WAC 192-630-015, WAC 192-610-051).

4. An employee may use vacation leave, sick leave, personal holiday, compensatory time, or holiday pay as a supplemental benefit while the employee is receiving partial wage replacement under title 50A RCW.

5. An employee is eligible for PFML, if the employee has worked at least 820 hours for a Washington state employer during the qualifying period, experiences a qualifying event and can provide proof of identification. ESD determines if an employee, and the employee’s application, qualifies for PFML (WAC 192-630-015).

   a. Qualifying events (WAC 192-500-080) include:
      i. Bonding with a newborn, adopted, or foster child;
      ii. Recovering from a serious health condition which may include surgery, illness, or injury;
      iii. Supporting a family member with a serious medical condition;
      iv. Certain events that are connected to a family member’s active duty military service
   b. Family members (WAC 192-610-035) that qualify for PFML include:
      i. Spouses and domestic partners;
      ii. Children (biological, adopted, foster, or stepchild);
      iii. Parents and legal guardians (or spouse’s parents);
      iv. Siblings;
      v. Grandchildren; and
      vi. Grandparents (or spouse’s grandparents).

6. An employee may take up to twelve (12) weeks of PFML within a year. In some instances, an employee may qualify for up to sixteen (16) or eighteen (18) weeks a year for applicable multiple qualifying events and pregnancy complications. ESD determines the total PFML leave entitlement (WAC 192-610-010, WAC 192-610-055).

7. An employee must provide the immediate supervisor with a written notice of a PFML absence within 30 days of a foreseeable absence (WAC 192-600-005). Written notice includes an e-mail or a written letter. If the PFML absence is unforeseeable, then an employee must provide written notice to the immediate supervisor as soon as practicable (WAC 192-600-010, WAC 192-600-015). The written notice must include the planned start date of the PFML absence, the expected duration and frequency of the PFML absence, and the intended return to work date (WAC 192-600-020).

Employees should provide a copy of the written notice to human resources, as ESD will contact the department to verify this information (WAC 192-610-060).

8. An employee is entitled to job restoration upon returning from a PFML absence, if the employee has been employed by the state of Washington for at least twelve (12) months, and has worked for the state of Washington for at least 1,250 hours in the twelve (12) months immediately preceding the start of the PFML absence. If an employee uses FMLA at the same time as PFML, then existing employer-paid health insurance benefits must continue to be paid by the department during the paid or unpaid leave granted under FMLA. An employee must be returned to the same or equivalent position held prior to the absence (WAC 192-700-005).

Job restoration denial is only permissible, if the department can prove that the employee would not have otherwise been employed at the time of restoration, or as defined in RCW 50A.35.010 (6)(b) (WAC 192-700-010).

P. Uniformed service shared leave pool (WAC 357-31-660)

1. The uniformed service shared leave pool is established to maintain a level of compensation and employee benefits consistent with the amount that an employee would receive, if the employee remained in active state service.
   a. Participation by eligible employees to receive shared leave is voluntary.
   b. Employees may voluntarily donate their leave to be used by an employee who is called to the uniform services.

2. Guidelines for implementing the uniformed service shared leave pool are available for additional information and directions.
