Any other findings required by other provisions of law as precondition to adoption or effectiveness of rule?

- Yes No If Yes, explain:

Purpose: The department is adopting new WAC 388-437-0015, Good cause extension of social security number (SSN) requirement for basic food applicants during COVID-19, to comply with approval from the US Department of Agriculture (USDA), Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) to extend the amount of time good cause for failure to provide the SSN is allowed during the COVID-19 pandemic. The department is also amending WAC 388-476-0005, Social Security number requirements, to align rule language more closely with federal regulation governing the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP).

Citation of rules affected by this order:

New: WAC 388-437-0015
 Repealed: None
 Amended: WAC 388-476-0005

Other authority: 7 CFR 273.6 (d)

EMERGENCY RULE

Under RCW 34.05.350 the agency for good cause finds:

- That immediate adoption, amendment, or repeal of a rule is necessary for the preservation of the public health, safety, or general welfare, and that observing the time requirements of notice and opportunity to comment upon adoption of a permanent rule would be contrary to the public interest.
- That state or federal law or federal rule or a federal deadline for state receipt of federal funds requires immediate adoption of a rule.

Reasons for this finding: Under current federal law, all Basic Food applicants and recipients must have a valid Social Security number to receive benefits. Due to the conditions of the COVID-19 pandemic, FNS approved a waiver allowing Washington state to extend the good cause period for failure to provide the SSN. This filing aligns rule with this waiver approval, which supports access to Basic Food benefits.

NEW SECTION

WAC 388-437-0015 Good cause extension of social security number (SSN) requirement for basic food applicants during COVID-19. Applicants for food benefits must provide an SSN under WAC 388-476-0005(1) in order to qualify. For those who do not have an SSN, they must apply for one and provide it to DSHS when issued.

(1) For applicants with an initial application date of March 1, 2020, or later, who have established good cause for failure to provide an SSN, the good cause period is extended for three months, in addition to the application month and the next month under WAC 388-476-0005(5)(a), for a total of up to five months.

(2) To continue receiving benefits beyond the five month good cause period, the applicant must show good cause for failure to apply for an SSN on a monthly basis in accordance with WAC 388-476-0005(5)(b).

(3) Adjustments under subsection (1) will continue each month until the U.S. department of agriculture, food and nutrition service no longer approves these adjustments.

AMENDATORY SECTION (Amending WSR 13-18-005, filed 8/22/13, effective 10/1/13)

WAC 388-476-0005 Social Security number requirements. (1) With certain exceptions, each person who applies for or receives cash or food assistance benefits must provide to the department a Social Security number (SSN), or numbers if more than one has been issued. For SSN requirements for immigrants, see WAC 388-424-0009.

(2) If the person is unable to provide the SSN, either because it is not known or has not been issued, the person must:

- (a) Apply for the SSN;
- (b) Provide proof that the SSN has been applied for; and
- (c) Provide the SSN when it is received.

(3) Assistance will not be delayed, denied or terminated pending the issuance of an SSN by the Social Security Administration. However, a person who does not comply with these requirements is not eligible for assistance.

(4) For cash and food assistance benefits, a person cannot be disqualified from receiving benefits for refusing to apply for or supply an SSN based on religious grounds.

(5) For food assistance programs:

(a) A person can receive benefits for the month of application and the following month if the person attempted to apply for the SSN and made every effort to provide the needed information to the Social Security Administration.

(b) In order for a person to receive benefits after the time period provided in subsection (5)(a), good cause for failure to apply for the SSN must be shown monthly.

(c) If a person is unable to provide proof of application for a SSN for a newborn:

(i) The newborn can receive Basic Food with the household while effort is being made to get the SSN.

(ii) For the newborn to continue receiving Basic Food benefits; the household must provide proof of application for SSN or the SSN for the newborn, at the next recertification, or within six months following the month the baby is born, whichever is later.

(6) There is no SSN requirement for the following programs:

- (a) The consolidated emergency assistance program; and
- (b) The refugee cash assistance program.
